Professional Experience

Linh Luong is the Program Director for both the Bachelors of Science in Project Management and the Masters of Science in Project Management, a PMI Globally Accredited program, at City University of Seattle.

Her background and career goes back 15+ years in IT project management with a specialization in software development and 7+ years in higher education. Linh has her Masters in both Information Systems and her MBA from the University of Texas in Dallas.

She is also PMP certified, a CSM (Certified Scrum Master), served on the advisory board member and contributor for Global PMI's Undergrad Advisory Committee as well as Puget Sound PMI Chapter. Her goal is to make sure that students are fully prepared to meet the market place demands with professional skills that will lead them to career success.
