Professional Experience

The focus of Michele's research lies in Adult Learning theory and its relation to online education. She has also researched Garner's theory of multiple intelligences to better understand learning styles, and applies the theory within her classrooms.

Her dissertation dealt with audio enhanced technologies in the online classroom and determining if this type of technology can improve communication and build community.

As principal faculty, teaching online is Michele's passion along with identifying new ways in which the online classroom can utilize technology to help every student learn.
