

Tee Nearman

Programs

Management

Education

- MBA, 1998 – City University of Seattle

Professional Experience

I primarily teach School of Management courses. All courses I teach relate not only to professional life, but can also be applied to students' personal lives. This makes for better business professionals, and also proficient and knowledgeable consumers.

I enjoy hiking and exploring the wilderness with my two critter kids, home decorating, volunteering with the Humane Society, and swimming.